MEDIA RELEASE

24 October 2006

SMS Management & Technology acquires REALTECH Australia - new business division to focus on enterprise solutions -

SMS Management & Technology Limited [ASX:SMX] (SMS) has signed a sale and purchase agreement to acquire technology services provider, REALTECH Australia Pty Ltd (REALTECH).

REALTECH will form part of the Company's new business division – SMS Enterprise Solutions.

SMS Enterprise Solutions will provide services around a broad range of solutions associated with enterprise deployments including greenfield deployments, system upgrades, modifications, ongoing user support and maintenance contracts.

Commenting on the new business division, SMS CEO Tom Stianos said, 'This is an important milestone in the execution of the Company's five year strategic plan. The Enterprise Solutions business will enable SMS to better respond to clients who require a more comprehensive service offering, particularly in relation to their ERP strategy.'

Of the REALTECH acquisition, Mr Stianos said, 'I would like to take this opportunity to welcome the REALTECH team and look forward to expanding our existing capability through its experience in the ERP arena,' Mr Stianos said.

REALTECH Managing Director Stephen Lloyd-Jones said, 'Joining SMS gives us the opportunity to combine our enterprise experience with the track record of one of the most reputable management and technology services companies in Australia. We look forward to assisting SMS to extend its services in the enterprise arena.'

REALTECH provides a range of extended enterprise services to leading Australian corporations, with a focus on enterprise application consulting, Enterprise Resource Planning (ERP) system implementation and full-line service helpdesk. Once acquired, REALTECH will operate from the SMS offices in New South Wales, Victoria and Queensland.

SMS is currently considering a number of complementary acquisitions which will further accelerate growth in the Enterprise Solutions area.
